DAMANIA ON PARTH
company's advocate had called the Mundhwa police, seeking police assistance in getting the property vacated.

Reading out station diary entries, Damania said a police team had visited the site and said the dispute should be resolved through the intervention of the concerned authorities or a civil court.

When HT asked Police Commissioner Amitesh Kumar to comment, all he said was that a diary entry had been made at the police station and it was in the public domain.

Damania also demanded that Partha Pawar's whereabouts be ascertained between 1 pm and 4.30 pm on the day Amadea approached him about the property. "The cell phone tower location of Partha Pawar on that day must be tracked," she said.

NCP spokesperson Suraj Chavhan said, "There is no truth to the allegations made by her. There is an inquiry and it is wrong to ask for Partha Pawar's location. She can go to court if the report is unsatisfactory. I want Damania's call data records to be examined and her relatives to be present. What is being done to Partha Pawar is a matter of concern."

A resolve Damania said he would make oral and written submissions to the committee headed by additional chief secretary (revenue) Vikas Kharge, appointed to probe the case. "I will then file a writ of habeas corpus to the court to get the police to hand over the property to me," she said.

Damania also said that five of the six government officials on the Kharge committee were from Pune and need to be removed from the panel as Ajit Pawar is guardian minister of the district and they could be under pressure.

The controversial Mundhwa land relates to the allegedly illegal registration of a sale deed by Amadea Enterprises in May this year. Since the property is government-owned, it cannot be sold to a private party and yet a sole proprietor is in favour of Partha's company.

Amadea has claimed it wanted to set up an IT park on the land. Damania on Wednesday, made further allegations relating to the ownership of the land. The property is Mahat Watan.

Manohar Patil, who was sworn in as the chief minister of Maharashtra on October 20, 2024, has directed his officials not to proceed with the land deal.

Patil has been serving as the chief minister since 2005. Preparations for the 2024 elections have been completed and his office has issued an order that no new Full-Fledged Petals runner (No. runner for odd numbers & No. 02 for even numbers) shall be issued for existing water jet system along with HPWF Coating and Machining/Boring & Reaming of coupling holes of new runners to match with the existing turbine shafts at site for 4x15 MW capacity of Shanta HEP, PSPCL, Jagedar Nagar (HP).

land and does not belong to a certain Gaitwadi family, as claimed by the family. Damania said the property was originally allotted to them, then taken back when the Mahar Watan law was repealed and never restored. Yet, she said, the Gaitwadi family had given power of attorney (POA) to a certain Shital Tejwani for the illegal transaction.

Besides the sale being illegal as it is government land, it also came to light that Amadea Enterprises was exempted from the payment of stamp duty of ₹2 crore.

Damania claimed that Tejwani had no authority to act, "She paid a fee of ₹10,000 on December 30, 2024, and wrote to the then collector about the deal.

Damania claimed that Tejwani had sought POA from 272 individuals, shown as original landowners, by allegedly giving them nominal sums. She later allegedly sold the land to Amadea Enterprises, the social activist claimed.

SHETLA TEJWANI

Tejwani, along with Partha's business partner Digvijay Patil and suspended Mundhwa Tildar Sahay Yeole, has been named as an accused. Yeole allegedly misused his authority by issuing eviction notices to the Botanical Survey of India (BSI), which occupies the land on a government lease. Police have maintained that Partha is not an accused, his actions do not appear to be done in the interest of the state.

According to investigators, Tejwani acted as the power of attorney holder for 272 former landowners and facilitated the deal to sell the 40-acre parcel to Amadea Enterprises LLP, a firm linked to Pawar and Patil, even though the land belongs to the government and is leased to the BSI.

Police probe commissioner Amitesh Kumar said Tejwani was served a notice for recording her statement, which will now be examined. "The statement will be scrutinised. We have verified the documents. The probe will proceed on all possible angles. The investigating team is working toward a final conclusion to determine the violations and verify the evidence gathered so far," he said.

State ministers individually are yet to be recorded, Kumar said.

A notice has also been served to Patil for recording his statement. Kumar said. Notices were also issued to 272 original "Watiyans" (those who had been granted ownership rights in the land under the Mahar Watan System), and some of them have already recorded their statements, he said. On Tuesday, Joint Inspector General Registration (JIG) Rajendra Muthu submitted the report of the committee headed by him to the government, indicating sub-registrar RB Taru, Patil and Tejwani for the illegal transaction.

The court's 137-page judgment underscored that India's constitutional framework does not recognise parliamentary supremacy in the British sense. "The Indian Constitution subscribes to constitutional supremacy," said the court, adding that once judicial pronouncements identify constitutional defects, they lay down broad principles that the legislature cannot simply re-enact the same provisions under a new label.

"Merely restating or repackaging an invalidated provision does not amount to curing the defect," noted the bench, rejecting Attorney General R Venkateswaran's argument that Parliament's wide latitude to legislate as it deemed fit.

A meticulous comparison of Ordinance 12 of 2021 (truck down tier), and the subsequent Act, revealed that Parliament "verbatim repeated" several provisions, including the minimum age of 50 for appointments, the uniform four-year tenure with upper age caps of 70 and 67, the directive that search-and-selection committees forward a panel of two names for every vacancy, and the linking of allowances and benefits to the equivalent posts.

These very measures, the bench pointed out, had already been held arbitrary, violative of judicial independence, and contrary to Articles 14 and 50 of the Constitution. Merely shifting the same content into Sections 3.5 and 7 of a stand-alone statute (2021 Act) using an oblique clause cannot cure the constitutional defects. It consciously defies binding judicial directions," the Court said.

home and away with Trinidad and Tobago.

"We didn't know they had players of European descent," said Chhetri, recently retired from international football for the second time. Igor Stimac did. "I knew they had players from Europe, but I didn't know they had a Dutch one in their team." Kumar said, referring to a connection that can be traced back to the 17th century when Curacao was a Dutch colony.

Curacao became a self-governing country in the Kingdom of Netherlands in 2010.

In the current squad, former Manchester United academy player Tahith Chong is the only player born in the island. The rest, including five green berets in Action, are from Holland. The players are allowed dual nationalities.

Tapping into Curacao footballer's Dutch heritage began in 2004. "Before that, it was with the local players who were not professional. From that moment, we have seen an enormous growth in the team," Gilbert Martina, the Curacao Football Federation president, told TNN.

"The aim was simple: get players not good enough to represent the senior Dutch side," said BPF observer.
