घरों की मांग को लेकर मिल मजदूरों का मोर्चा

आशीश शेलार के कार्यालय के बाहर प्रदर्शन की तैयारी

मुंबई के मिल मजदूर एक बार फिर अपने घरों की मांग को लेकर आक्रमक हो गए हैं। रविवार को वे बांद्रा पैलेज स्थित उपनगर पालक मंडी आशीश शेलार के कार्यालय के बाहर जोरदार विरोध प्रदर्शन करने जा रहे हैं। उनकी मुख्य मांग है कि उन्हें मुंबई के बाहर घर नहीं चाहिए और सरकार द्वारा 15 मार्च 2024 को जारी किया गया फैसले को तुरंत रद्द किया जाए। मिल मजदूर यूनियन के संतोष मारे भवता या कि पिछले शुक्रवार उपराष्यमंत्री एकान्त शिंदे के बायोट्रैक निर्माण से लैट चल रही खुदाई से स्थानीय नागरिकों को भारी असुविधा हो रही है। नागरिकों की शिकायतों को गभीरता से लेते हुए शिवसेना (उद्घव बालासाहेब टाकरे) के नेता एवं विधायक आदिवा टाकरे के आशीश और सांसद अराविंद सावंत के मार्गदर्शन में शिवसेनिकों ने ढी वॉर्ड के उत्तरांग विधायिकों को दौरा कराना चाहा।

दाई लाख मजदूरों ने किया आवेदन

मिल मजदूरों और उनके उत्तरांगिकरियों ने मिल की जमीन पर घर पाने के लिए झटका को आवेदन किया है। हालांकि, अब तक केवल 25 हजार मजदूरों को ही मुंबई में घर आवादित किये गए हैं। शेष 1.5 लाख से अधिक मजदूरों के घरों का मामला लंबित है, जो अब गभीर चिंता का विषय बन गया है। राज्य सरकार ने पिछले साल नियमित विधायिकों के बायोट्रैक निर्माण से लैट चल रही खुदाई से असुविधा दूर करने के लिए एक बड़ी योजना बनायी है। इसमें एकत्र 15 लाख घरों की विशेष विधायिकों की व्यवस्था करने के लिए एक बड़ा योजना बनाया गया है। इसके बाद इसके बायोट्रैक निर्माण के लिए एक बड़ा योजना बनाया जाएगा।

Murshidabad violence: 2 top cops transferred

Both Governor C.V. Ananda Bose and the National Commission for Women had slammed the state's failure to prevent the unrest

AGENCIES

KOLKATA, 26 APRIL

The West Bengal government on Friday announced the replacement of the current police superintendents in both the police districts of minority-dominated Murshidabad district, which had been on the boil earlier this month following communal violence and riot-like situation.

as protests against the Waqf (Amendment) Act there turned violent.

Murshidabad district has two separate "police districts", namely Murshidabad and Jangipur, with one Indian Police Service (IPS) officer in superintendent rank being in-charge of the police districts.

Yadav has been replaced by Kumar Sunny Raj, the erstwhile superintendent of Ranaghat Police district in Nadia district.

which is available with agencies, the erstwhile superintendent of Murshidabad Police, Surya Pratap Yadav, has been transferred to a comparatively less significant post of commanding officer of Narayani Battalion in Cooch Behar district.

As per a notification issued by the state government on Friday evening, a copy of Similarly, on Friday, the state government also ordered the replacement of the erstwhile superintendent of Jangipur Police district, Ananda Roy, who has again been a comparatively lesser significant post of commanding officer of the third battalion, Eastern Frontier Rifles (EFR) at Salua in West Midnapore district.

Roy has been replaced by Amit Kumar Shaw, the erstwhile deputy commissioner (traffic) of Kolkata Police.

Officially, the state government has described the transfers as routine ones.

Both the police districts in Murshidabad had been under scrutiny from various sections for reacting late in preventing communal violence in the district as they ignored early intelligence inputs about the possible violence.

Communal violence in Murshidabad especially impacted women, girls: NCW

AGENCIES

KOLKATA, 26 APRIL

The impact of the communal violence and riot-like situation in the minority-dominated Murshidabad district in West Bengal following protests against Waqf (Amendment) Act turning violent there earlier this month has been maximum among the women and children of the victim families there, observed the National Commission for Women (NCW) on Friday.

"According to observations by the NCW, communal violence had a particularly devastating impact on women and girls. Many were subjected to unspeakable acts of sexual violence, physical assault, and rape threats. Survivors described how they were dragged out of their homes, brutally attacked, and in some instances, told to send their daughters to be raped. The trauma inflicted on these women is severe, and the psychological, emotional, and physical toll will be long-lasting. Forced displacement has further pushed these women into vulnerable situations, violating their basic human rights and dignity," a statement issued by the NCW on Friday read.

The observations were based on the recent findings by a delegation of the NCW, led by the commission's chairperson Vijaya K. Rahatkar, who had earlier visited the troubled pockets of Murshidabad and interacted with the displaced persons from the troubled spots who were housed there.

had also highlighted the negligence and failure on part of the West Bengal government to take preventive action against the communal violence despite having enough and prior intelligence inputs.

The committee observed a complete breakdown of administrative machinery and governance in Murshidabad district. Despite prior intelligence and visible tensions in the area, the state government failed to take preventive or responsive action, and instead, appeared to act as a mute spectator.

The violence appears to have been deliberate and pre-meditated, with many victims alleging that Hindu homes and businesses were selectively targeted in an apparent effort to seize land and property.

"The porous border with Bangladesh, combined with poor administrative vigilance, has worsened the situation, and the presence of radical religious elements in the area cannot be ruled out," the NCW statement read.

The commission had also observed that the selective targeting of women in Murshidabad was not isolated incidents but a systemic failure causing lasting trauma, destabilising communities and fracturing the social fabric.

"The community, especially Hindu residents, expressed a complete loss of faith in the state police and demanded the establishment of BSF or CRPF camps to ensure their safety and return to normalcy," the NCW statement read.

The commission had also noted that despite issuing a peace appeal on April 18, the Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee is yet to visit the troubled pockets in Murshidabad and meet the victims and their families.

Breast groping attempt not 'attempt to rape' but 'aggravated sexual assault': Calcutta HC

AGENCIES

KOLKATA, 26 APRIL

The Calcutta High Court on Friday, suspending an earlier order by a West Bengal trial court convicting and sentencing an accused under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCO) Act, observed that an attempt to grope the breasts of a victim can only support the charge of "aggravated sexual assault" and not "attempt to rape", under the act.

The trial court found the accused guilty of both "aggravated sexual assault" and "attempt to rape", the imprisonment period for the convict would also be scaled down between five and seven years from 12 years, which is applicable in case of "attempt to rape".

In this particular case, the convict has already spent 28 months behind bars.

The bench ordered that if after the final hearing, the charge is scaled down to just "aggravated sexual assault" from both "aggravated sexual assault" and "attempt to rape", the imprisonment period for the convict would also be scaled down between five and seven years from 12 years, which is applicable in case of "attempt to rape".

The bench ordered that the operation of the order of conviction and sentence shall remain suspended till the disposal of the appeal or until further orders, whichever is earlier. It also stayed the payment of the fine till the disposal of the appeal.

However, at the same time, the division bench also clarified that its observations should have no impact on the hearing of the appeal.

penetration or attempt of penetration.

It noted that, as per the version of the victim, the accused tried to "grop her breasts" under the influence of alcohol.

"Such evidence may support a charge of aggravated sexual assault under Section 10 of the POCSO Act, 2012, but prima facie does not indicate commission of the offence of attempted rape," the division bench observed.

Life term for man who killed wife for money

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

BURDWAN, 26 APRIL

The sons of a woman had described before the Court how their father had 'brutally' thrashed their mother to death with a bamboo log as she'd failed to bring money from her parents, which helped the Burdwan Court to pronounce life term for the accused father yesterday.

Bhairavi Ankure was married to Budhan Ankure of Purbatoti village in Asagram PS area in 1995. The bereaved father of the housewife said:

"Just after a few months of her marriage, my daughter started facing difficult situations at her in-laws' place as they started mounting pressure for money. Despite my hardships, I used to meet their demand from time to time. But within months, they started chasing for money and I tried to satisfy them but in 2020, even after 25 years of their marriage, my son-in-law asked for a hefty sum, which I failed to meet."

On 28 October, 2020, around 11 p.m., Budhan picked up a bamboo log and beat his wife Bhairavi to death in front of their two sons. Later, the police arrested Budhan from Bisuria village in Santiniketan PS area in Birbhum.

At the Second Fast Track Court, both the sons of the deceased narrated how their father killed their mother for money. Aravind Mishra, judge, Fast Track Court II, Burdwan, ordered life term for Budhan with Rs 50,000 cash fine.
