(By Rakesh Undi)

Mumbai, Aug 1 : During his tenure in Yavatmal, Yavatmal Zilla Parishad won the state-level first prize of the Yashwantrao Chavan Panchayat Raj Award in the year 2020-21 and the state-level first prize of the scheme under the Women and Child Development Department for successfully implementing that scheme. During the Covid period, Mission Kayakalp was implemented and improvements were made in RH, PHC, Sub center.

After that, in Jalna district, in line with the Maratha reservation agitation, the state government and the agitators handled the agitation period sensitively by coordinating and communicating with each other. Jalna district was selected at the divisional level in the CM 100 days program. Also, substantial work has been done in the sectors of silk, Agro processing, skill development in Jalna district.

In the evolving needs. "We cannot leave scope for even the slightest negligence or mistake," he added. Emphasising that a robust administrative system is integral for a strong military power, he commended the AFHQ Civilian Services for playing an important role in strengthening the country's security system during war as well as peace time. "AFHQ Services acts as an institutional memory for the Defence Ministry. It provides consistency, domain expertise and uniformity in the administration, while playing a key role in policy continuity and establishing civil-military synergy. It is a strong pillar of a modern and integrated national defence system," he added.

Addressing the 84th Armed Forces Headquarters (AFHQ) Civilian Services Day event at DRDO Bhawan, here, Rajnath asserted that a war is fought not just by the military, but the entire country, and in today's rapidly changing security scenario, there is a need to move ahead with dynamism and innovative spirit while making constant improvements according to

New Delhi, Aug 1 (UNI)

: To strengthen the nation's security framework amid current uncertainties, Defence Minister Rajnath Singh emphasised the need for greater coordination between civil and military personnel. He highlighted the crucial role played by various departments within the Ministry of Defence (MoD) in providing outstanding back-end support to the armed forces, which was a major factor in the success of Operation Sindoora, a Defence Ministry statement said.

Addressing the 84th

Armed Forces Headquarters (AFHQ) Civilian Services Day event at DRDO Bhawan, here, Rajnath asserted that a war is fought not just by the military, but the entire country, and in today's rapidly changing security scenario, there is a need to move ahead with dynamism and innovative spirit while making constant improvements according to ministries and countries in the fields of training and capability enhancement.

"Emerging technologies, new challenges and changing global scenario indicate that training should not be just a formal process, but a continuous cycle of development. Skill upgradation, ethical orientation and behavioural excellence need to be added as integral parts of training," he said.

He further added that training components must not be limited to technical proficiency, but also include value orientation, which can connect actions with national interests. This would make AFHQ a value-based institution along with an administrative structure, he said.

As part of the event, the Minister launched a redeveloped website of Office of Joint Secretary and Chief Administrative Officer (www.caomod.gov.in), which will provide all relevant information about the office to the employees and general public.

The employees would be able to get the latest orders and updates such as as promotion, transfer, status of medical allowance, salary slips and Form-16 etc.

Through the website, the employees can also apply for various training courses and workshops of Defence

Headquarters Training Institute. He also released a book 'Viksit Bharat@2047: Karmikone Ke Vichar' and a magazine 'Samvad' and presented awards to AFHQ personnel for their achievements in various fields.

BJP accuses Congress of 'targeting saints, soldiers, for vote bank politics'

New Delhi, Aug 1 (UNI) Continuing its tirade against the Congress over the Malegaon Blast case issue following the verdict acquitting all seven accused, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) today slammed the Opposition party for what it termed as "targeting saints, soldiers, Sanatan Dharma, and the Constitution" over the past 17 years as part of a "deliberate strategy to malign Hindus for electoral gains".

Speaking at a press conference here, party spokesperson Sambil Patra said, "Saints, soldiers, Sanatan, and the Constitution — Congress attacked all four for 17 years. It was a calculated strategy to malign Hindus for vote bank politics. But in the end, truth has triumphed."

Patra's remarks came in response to the National Investigation Agency (NIA) court's acquittal of all seven accused in the 2008 Malegaon blast case.

He alleged that the Congress party, particularly the Gandhi family, had sought to create a false narrative of 'safron terror', deliberately linking Hindu identity with terrorism.

The judgment by the NIA court has shattered the false propaganda that Congress tried to spread for years," he added.

Referring to a major revelation, Patra cited former Anti-Terrorism Squad (ATS) officer Mehbappa Mujawar, who claimed he was pressured by senior officers and government officials to arrest Rashtriya Swayansevak Sangh (RSS) chief Mohan Bhagwat, despite Bhagwat's name not featuring in any charge sheet or investigation report.

Mujawar resisted, citing constitutional limits, and faced false allegations and career setbacks. He was later acquitted by the court. Patra said,

"This is a clear example of Congress' vindictive politics under the Gandhi family's leadership," he asserted, a day after his colleague and senior party leader Ravi Shankar Prasad had sought Congress apology for making remarks that the blast was a case of "Hindu terror".

Patra also recalled Prime Minister Narendra Modi's earlier statement alleging that a senior Congress leader had met American intelligence officials and labelled "Hindi terror" a bigger threat than the Students Islamic Movement of India (SIMI). "Everyone knows who that leader is," he remarked, indirectly referring to the Gandhi family.

He further criticised Congress leader Pritivijay Chavan for his comments that "terrorism has no religion" while simultaneously referring to "Sanatan or Hindu terrorism."

Patra also cited former Union Home Minister Sushil Kumar Shinde's admission that his "safron terror" remarks were made under party directives.
